Camp... A Special Time in our Lives

Color War ended and camp reunited, but the high-energy fun lasted the entire week! Wednesday's carnival featured enormous dry and water inflatables. Each camp division had ample time to enjoy the rides and games while listening to party tunes on the P.A. Lines were long for the highlight of the day... the counselor dunk tank! Special thanks to our lifeguards and counselors who volunteered to get soaked so the children could have fun at their expense!

Thursday was the annual pajama day, which even our oldest campers enjoyed. All week, groups prepared for the big event... Friday's talent show. The efforts of each counselor paid off when the campers sang, danced, and told jokes. The performances showed just how much work our staff members put into working with the campers all summer. (And even I knew most of the routines by the last day, having seen them soooooo many times this summer!) After the talent show, all campers received awards for excellence in various camp activities. Along with this newsletter, you will find the "Summer Souvenir" Year in Review with a list of these awards, plus a fun counselor-chosen "most likely to become" for every camper.

Special thanks are due to some key people who made this summer run so smoothly. To my staff of counselors and CIT's, you are the life of the camp, working hand in hand with the campers all day! A huge thank you to Lisa Loewinger, who was my right hand in organizing this camp season. Working with the board members was positive and collaborative. Karen expertly kept our large Nursery running smoothly. And of course, Marina made so many things possible... from boobos, to organizing closets, to the farm trip, and more! Finally, the fantastic parents and Lansman's families for welcoming me back and supporting our efforts each day with smiles and appreciation. I wish everybody a fantastic school year and hope to see you all next summer!

Your camp director and friend,

Scott M. Eckers

An Amazing Undefeated Season

Lansman's Upper Camp participated in the final wiffleball game of the season on August 14th. The game involved a collaborative effort of all the Upper Camp boys and it resulted in a dominant victory for our campers. All the boys participated and were supportive of one another during the game. And the result was a loud cheer in celebration of their victory! (Reporting by Will Young)

MVP of the game was Jamieson Crawley, who single-handedly made an inning-ending double play.

Our Upper Camp girls were on the sidelines the entire time, cheering on our players with Color War-style spirit and cheering.

Overall, this represents a completely undefeated season in intercamp games. Congratulations!

Keep in Touch

Please make sure to check your inboxes throughout the year for important Lansman's emails, such as updates, calendars, and registration information for the 2025 season. Keep in touch and let us know about any big news!

Great job, Ethan Wieder and Noah Wieder, Boys 1 campers of the week for Week 7!
